If you can keep your head when all about you Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you, But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting, Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or, being hated, don't give way

So thank you, Marianne Richmond, for writing this book. You ground me. And some days us mamas need grounding. "If I could keep you little, I'd keep you close to me. But then I'd miss you growing into who you're meant to be!" I am so truly proud of my little girls and who they are becoming. I could not ask for anything more as a mother.
