In Arabia Wed All Be

In Arabia We'd All Be Kings is a dramatic play set in New York City, written by Stephen Adly Guirgis. It chronicles the demise of a group of individuals living in New York's Hell's Kitchen around the time before Rudy Giuliani's efforts to clean up the city. Out of work and strapped for money, the lives of these individuals revolve around a local bar and their misguided hopes and dreams. The play deals primarily with issues of commercialism, hope, and friendship.

Effectively realizing what it is to be used and abused, scheming, tricking, cheating, otherwise compromising one's self in the quest for survival, In Arabia, We'd All Be Kings is also deeply compassionate. It is brutal in it's presentation, rude in it's expressions, humorous and musical in it's confrontations and even funereal for it's environment.
